Becoming a new creation in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17)

This is done by seeking God, (Matthew 6:33) finding understanding, and asking why I am here? What is the purpose of life? (Jeremiah 29:13) Turn to God for the answers not relying on our own understanding. (Proverbs 3:5-6) “But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you seek him with all your heart and with all your soul” (Deuteronomy 4:29). By seeking Him with all our heart (Isaiah 55:6-7), and calling to Him, we find ourselves in a humble state, realizing how much we need His grace and mercy for our sin.

True Knowledge - Fear of God (Proverbs 9:10)

God’s creation reveals how powerful He is without needing our help. God is powerful with or without us, and He will receive His Glory regardless of our beliefs. By His grace, we are able to witness His power in nature every day. (Psalm 19:1) “The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork”. Through witnessing, suffering, and correction, we understand God is truly in control, and by surrendering, we fall under His grace and mercy knowing “That God causes all things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose” (Romans 8:28). The Fear of God leads us to focus on Gods glory, holiness, and unconditional love. All things work together for His glory, and by us accepting Jesus Christ as our Savior we experience this love and greatness.

Obedience and Love – (Romans 1:5)

Truly seeking to follow God's word in the bible shows that we acknowledge His position in our lives. It demonstrates that we seek Him first when making decisions. (John 14:21) "Whoever has my commands and keeps them is the one who loves me. The one who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I too will love them and show myself to them." When we grow in our relationship with Jesus, we begin to understand that God's commands are for our good and our obedience to Him is birthed out of love for Him. Obedience is worship. In Christ, keeping God's commands goes from "have to" to "get to" as it is our joy to listen, trust, and obey our Lord.

Purpose- Gods providence (Proverbs 16:9)

By staying rooted in God's word, we now have understanding and guidance regarding why we are created and focus on Gods sovereignty while sharing the gospel to others. (Matthew 28:18-20) "And Jesus came and said to them, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.'" When we understand the good news of Jesus, when we understand that we have been saved from the wrath of God and now have eternal life, this should compel us to preach the gospel through word and deed so that others may come to know Jesus as their Lord and Savior, going from death to life. "For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; for woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel." (1 Cor 9:16)

Peace – The Cross (John 16:33)

Through God fulfilling His purpose and promise through Christ, we can be saved by grace through faith. As a result, we can now be free from our sin, and have eternal life through Gods perfect sacrifice. (Galatians 2:20) "I have been crucified with Christ. It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me." Our peace comes from being in Christ, resting in His sufficient work on the cross, and His work in our lives.
